Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—When did the Government receive the report ?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—On the 31st January 1955.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Will the Government make the copy of the report available to the members ?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Most probably it will be done.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Will it not be advisable if copies of the report are given so that it might facilitate our budget discussion ?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—As a matter of fact,—I can take the House into confidence—I have already sent it for printing. Formal sanction of Government is necessary.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY.—Has the Committee recommended the opening of new courts and, if so, how many ?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Just at present I cannot disclose the recommendations. The report has been put before the Government. After approval, I shall give a copy of it, most probably as early as possible.

Industrial Disputes Rules (amendment suggested by Labour Department).

Q.—96. Sri D. VENKATESH (Gandhinagar Constituency).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) whether there was any recommendation from the Department of Labour, suggesting certain amendments to the rules of the Works Committee ;
